CAULFIELD—In Grants Pass, Ore., Monday, March 3, 1908, Robert Caulfield, aged 80 years, of senility.

WINCH—In Grants Pass, Oregon, Saturday, February 29, 1908, Mrs. Elizabeth Winch, aged 87 years.

Although her death was not altogether unexpected, owing to the mishap of a few days previous, when she fell and injured herself quite seriously, yet her demise was keenly felt by all who had been fortunate enough to know Mrs. Winch, personally.

She will be particularly missed in Bethany Presbyterian church, where she took much interest in everything that pertained to the good work being carried on and her lovely Christian character drew people irresistibly to her.

Since 1889 she has been making her home with her daughter, Mrs. H. C. Kinney and family, where her presence was every a benediction and where she will be sorely missed, and in whose loss the entire community extends sincerest sympathy.

Sunday afternoon impressive funeral services were held at the Kinney residence, Rev. W. G. Smith officiating at the same. Many were the floral tokens and other manifestations of respect shown by loving hearts in honor of the departed.

Complying with her request, Mr. Kinney departed with the remains, Sunday evening, for the old home, back at East St. Johnsbury, Vermont, where they will be entered by the side of her husband.

The demonstration of the "Newstyle Washing Machine," which was given at O'Neill's big house furnishing establishment, Saturday was very interesting, but owing to the inclement weather, many ladies of the city were prevented from witnessing the excellent work of this new machine.

The Dausmuir News says that rather unconfirmed reports have been afloat for several days to the effect that passenger trains Nos. 11 and 12 would soon be resumed by the Southern Pacific company. Ever since the discontinuation of these trains the traveling public have suffered to a considerable extent, and any plans that would have a tendency to restate these popular trains would be hailed with delight by the people.

"Winter seems to be sitting in the lap of Spring pretty nicely these days," said one citizen, as he beheld the snow flakes flying around.

This week Capt. G. P. Atchison, the affable custodian of the Commercial Club mineral exhibit had the misfortune to badly sprain one of his ankles, making it pretty hard for him to be about.

Arthur Conklin has decided to offer five choice building lots to the first five persons who will erect on said lots this spring, residences worth not less than $1500 each. This is certainly a most commendable thing to do.

Van Meade, who is now assisting in publishing the Copper Outlook, at Kennett, Cal., writes friends here that he is taking in the surrounding country on foot and that one day he "hoofed it" not less than 20 miles. He reports things lively down that way.

Rev. W. W. MacHenry, chairman of the county campaign committee of the Anti-Saloon League, returned Saturday from an up-county tour, and after filling his Sunday engagements with his church starts out on the campaign again this week, holding a rally at Jacksonville tonight. Rev. Mr. MacHenry says the strength of the anti-saloon movement in the rural precincts of the county is a surprise even to its friends, and everywhere organization is being carried on to make Jackson county "dry" in June. —Ashland Tidings.

In speaking of the visit of the Grants Pass councilmen, the Eugene Register has this to say: "The delegation of four prominent citizens headed by J. T. Toffa, which was in Eugene a day or two, came here to quietly inspect our street paving, curbing, gutters, etc. They did not divulge the object of their visit except to the city surveyor and plied him with all kinds of questions as to materials, construction, cost, gutters and every detail. They say they expect to pave their streets and they are out quietly making observations."

This morning the old Croxton residence, three miles west of the city was burned to the ground. It is owned by Messrs. Herman and Flynn, who recently purchased the same and who were making extensive improvements on the place. Each day they go out to the place and just as they were driving into the gate, this morning, they heard Mrs. Atwood, wife of Chas. Atwood, who rents the place, crying fire and in a very short time the place [was all] in flames and was practically a total loss, with some insurance. Although but worth only $2000, yet it will damage the appearance of the place quite a little. There was $1000 insurance on the place. Mr. Herman in assisting with removing the household goods, sustained a rather bad cut on his forehead.

FRUITGROWERS PLANNING FOR IMPORTANT MEETING

There will be a meeting at the Court House in Grants Pass on Saturday, March 14 at 1:30 p. m. sharp, of the members of the Grants Pass Fruit Growers Association and of all others interested in the development of the fruit industry in Josephine county.

To bring about a more stringent enforcement of the fruit pest laws will be one of the principal topics considered. The threatened invasion of the pear blight is a menace that must be met promptly and vigorously or the most profitable part of the fruit industry in Rogue River Valley will be ruined within not to exceed two years. And that the neglected fruit trees in Grants Pass and the abandoned orchards in the county should no longer be a breeding place for countless myriads of pests to overrun the well kept orchards and to make additional expense to the fruit growers is another matter that will be considered.

The proposition will be submitted to the Association of discontinuing printed fruit boxes and an order placed for lithographed box labels also for pear box mats and printed fruit wrappers. The easy going, slipshod, six-bits-a-box method of packing and selling fruit in Josephine county is to come to an end, but if the growers are to get fancy prices for their fruit they must put up an honest pack and a fancy paper. The offer is made the Association of such arsenate of lead as the members may need at a special low rate and this will be acted upon, as will also the making up of an order, that will be conditional and for later delivery, for fruit paper at a special price on a car load. The prospects of a record crop of fruit for this season is certain to make a big demand for fruit paper.

During the afternoon a general discussion will be had of the various topics that interest fruit growers. A question box will be on the table and those desiring information of special points should write out their queries and place them in the box. During the meeting the box will be opened and the questions read and answers called for from those present. Now all who want to perfect themselves in the art of growing high-priced fruit should attend this meeting and be present on time for the afternoon will be all too short.

Colonist Rates.

As has been the custom for several years past the Railroads leading to the coast have agreed on a colonist rate, a little higher than in years past, but still a very attractive rate, and it ought to have the effect of bringing a large number of immigrants to Oregon this spring. The rate is effective from March 1st to April 30th and is substantially as follows: from Chicago $88; from Missouri river common points, Council Bluffs to Kansas City inclusive, St. Paul, Minneapolis, Denver, etc., $90; St. Louis, $85.50. Usual stopover privileges will be given on these tickets. 1-24 11
